Doubleheader Arranged For Sunday at Ball Lot

Twenty-fifth Infantry and All-Stars Will Clash in Second Game—Chinese and Braves Appear in Curtain Raiser—Directors of Pacific League Chosen Last Evening—First Game at Athletic Park Within Month—First Game at 1:30

Baseball will have its inning local-ly on Sunday afternoon at Athletic park when two teams will clash in an opening game, and two others in the closing contest. In the feature game of the day the strong 25th Infantry team will meet an aggregation of all-stars selected by Manager Brush, and he is confident that there will be something doing on Sunday.

"We gave the Wrecking Crew an awful scare early this year and will be ready to give them another battle Sunday," said Brush in speaking about the game. "Our pitchers are working good, and if we can catch the 25th team off in their batting art there will be a victory. Some team has got to beat them, sooner or later, and we are planning this time to do it. They have a great team and should be favorites, but you never can tell. If we don't beat them with the team selected, then there will be little hope for the others."

Rogers May Pitch

Manager Chaney of the 25th Infantry has not yet announced which pitcher he will use in the game with the All-Stars. Rogers, Aulston or Jasper may be the selection. Brush has a number of good pitchers and Simmons, who held the Lulus to three hits, may be the man to mount the hill.

"Honolulu fans will be given a rare treat when Johnson goes behind the bat," said Chaney. "He is a good batsman, and is certain to get some of the stars standing up. Honolulu fans have not seen the big fellow in action behind the plate this year, and his work will be watched with interest."

Braves vs. Chinese

As a curtain raiser the Braves and Chinese will clash, and this battle promises to be interesting. The two teams are evenly matched, and past games have proved that they are hard workers. This game will begin at 1:30 sharp. Inasmuch as the Pacific League teams have always played their games in less than one hour and a half it is expected that they will be finished in plenty of time to start the other game at 3:30 sharp.

Manager Tan Lo of the Chinese team will send Nelson Kau, the little curve pitcher, on the mound with Kam, behind the bat. Manager Lee of the Braves has Perry ready for the fray, and their defeat of the 159th Company has given them plenty of confidence for the first game. Some of the leading stars of the city will meet in this game, and neither team is picked as the favorite.

Directors Named

At a meeting last evening held at Dr. K. I. Chan's office the baseball fans interested in the development of baseball organized the Pacific League and games will be scheduled at Athletic park each Saturday and Sunday. It was announced that there would be no game on this Saturday. During the meeting Ray Gardner, Bert Hushaw and Sam Nott were elected directors of the league. They will have charge of the arrangements of plans for future baseball.

Tan Lo and Lee were present at the meeting and both announced that they would have a strong lineup for the game on Sunday. The lineup of the Chinese team will be as follows:

Kam, c; Kai, p; Lai, 1b; Low, 2b; U. Bun, ss; Kong Tai, 3b; Fun Luke, lf; Tan Lo, cf; Kong Sing, rf. The Braves will have the following players in action: Lopez, c; Perry, p; Silva, 1b; Lee, 2b; Anahu, 3b; Mara, ss; Ornelas, lf; V. Rosa, cf; S. Rosa, rf. Capt. Norris Stanton will be one of the umpires.

SCHEDULE FOR COMMERCIALS BEGINS OCT. 5

Bowlers of Sugar Factors and Financiers Will Get in Action Next Thursday

The Y. M. C. A. Commercial Bowling League will open next Thursday evening with a match between the Sugar Factors and Financiers. The Sugar Factors' team is made up of men connected with the Big Five sugar agencies under the leadership of C. H. Atherton.

The Financiers include bowlers connected with the banks and trust companies. Percy Nottage has organized this team and a captain will be elected just before the opening match.

On Friday evening the Printers and Clericals will be on the boards. W. A. Ham has corralled eight men from the various printing establishments for the pin smashing. Paul Lemke has been aggressively signing the best clerical bowlers not included in other teams.

The Territorials will exhibit for the first time on Monday, October 9, with the Pineapple Factors as opponents. The Federals open on Thursday, October 12. There will be matches regularly on Monday, Thursday and Friday evenings until the Coast League opens in November. After that the coasters bowl on Mondays while the Commercial Leaguers shift to Wednesday.

MODERN TRAINING

A pugilist was training for a battle in the ring. Wherein his purpose was to jab and clinch and hook and swing.

He rose at dawn and took his gun and ambled out to hunt; At 8 o'clock he acted for a moving picture stunt.

At 9 o'clock he swung his ax and felled a chestnut tree While 47 snapshot men were standing there to see.

At 10, in cowboy clothes, he broke a broncho full of vim. The Hoosier Photo-play concern was making films of him.

And then he paused and rested till he ate his noodley meal, And while he had the feed bag on, they took another reel.

At 1 he dragged his racquet out and played a tennis game. The movie men were there to film his svelte and active frame.

At 2 he donned his golfing togs and beat it to the links. Surrounded by an army corps of moving picture ginks.

At 3 he played a game of chess, at 4 a game of rum. The film machines were on the job and likewise going some.

At 5 he played the phonograph and danced the turkey trot. Believe me, Steve, the movie men were Johnny on the spot.

At 6 he ate his evening meal surrounded by a group. The caption of a film will read: "Freddie Biltz In-ling Soup."

At 8 he wore his evening clothes, likewise his iron hat. "Great stuff" the stage director said. "We'll make a film of that."

At 10 he doffed his soup-and-fish and tumbled into .... "You've done a hard day's train-ing, Fred," the stage director said.

Some day a boxing champ will come with notions strange and new, And when he trains will don the gloves and box a round or two. —George Phair.

"Nap" May Have His Chance

"Nap" Rucker, veteran southpaw of the Brooklyn Dodgers, may have a chance to pitch in the world's series. When he was at the height of his career a few years ago fans throughout the country expressed the wish that Rucker might be able to pitch in the big classic. After many years he may have his chance, and it is certain that despite the fact that time has made inroads on his ability he will be seen on the mound in one of the games should the Dodgers win out this year. Rucker has been playing baseball for 13 years, nine of which have been spent with Brooklyn.

Cobb Concedes Bat Honors to Tris Speaker

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 19.—Tyrus Cobb, for nine years the leading batsman of the American League, today conceded that Tris Speaker of the Cleveland club would be the 1916 champion. Speaker now has a margin of 20 points over Cobb, according to unofficial averages. Cobb said it is a human impossibility for him to try to cut down this lead and at the same time to cooperate in team play to the fullest extent of his ability. Cobb's individual efforts won two of Detroit's recent victories.

The figures give Speaker 193 hits in 502 times at bat, for an average of .384, to Cobb's 182 hits in 500 times at bat, for an average of .364.

BRUNDAGE WINS TITLE OF KING IN ATHLETICS

Chicago Man Wins All-Round Championship; Kelly and Thompson 2nd and 3rd

NEWARK, Sept. 16.—Avery Brundage of the Chicago Athletic Association regained his title in the all-round national championship decided at Westchester park today. He was crowned king of the amateur athletic world with the high score of 648.75. Fred Kelly of Los Angeles Athletic Club was second, with 593.525 points. Earl Thompson, the latter's clubmate, was third, with 596.10 points.

The great finishing sprint of William Gordon, who ran as anchor man for the New York Athletic Club, won the four-mile national relay championship.

Willie Kyrönen of the Millrose A. A. was the victor in the modified marathon. Fourteen miles of the course was through the streets of Newark. Time, 1 hour 20 minutes 55 seconds. William Kennedy (unattached) of Chicago was second. In a special 440-yard hurdle race William Meanix of the Boston A. A. defeated W. A. Hummel of the Multnomah A. A., Portland, Ore., holder of the title.

Crucial Series in Race For Flag Begins Today

Brooklyn and Philadelphia Will Meet in First of Three-Game Series—Boston Braves Will Attempt to Stop the Winning Streak of New York Giants—Boston Looks Like Winner in American League—Nap Rucker May Have His Chance

Which teams will enter the big classic in baseball this year? That is a question that the fans are asking these days. At the present time the Boston Red Sox look like winners for another year in the American League, although there are many fans who still hold out hopes for the White Sox and Tigers.

The result of the race may be decided today or may not be known until the end of the season. This afternoon the White Sox begin a four-game series with Cleveland. That ends their play for the year. Detroit begins tomorrow in the curtain contests of the year. Boston has three more games with New York and three with the Athletics.

Exit Tigers

Detroit must be eliminated, as Boston will only have to win one game to give them the edge on the Tigers. Chicago has a slight chance, but it is so slim as to warrant the assertion that Boston will be the pennant winner in the Johnson circuit. Chicago must win four straight games from Cleveland and Boston can win only two out of the remaining six games and still be tied with the Chicago crew.

In the National League it is anybody's race yet. And the teams will go right up to the finish fighting. The eastern teams have been getting fat off the western clubs, winning 90 per cent of their games, but this afternoon the crucial series start and the Quakers and Dodgers will fight it out in Brooklyn in a three-game series.

Twenty-Three Skiddo?

While the Quakers are meeting the Dodgers across the bridge the Braves will be playing on Manhattan island, and this series promises to be a hard-fought one. It is certain that the Giants' record of 23 games won may be a skidoo one, as the Braves are out for the flag. If the Giant pitching staff can hold up there is certain to be some trouble for the Percy crowd, as with the exception of the pitching staff McGraw has the greatest team in the National League.

The Giants have no chance for the pennant, but they are certain to cause some trouble for the other teams. As a matter of fact the Braves have but little chance, and the fight should be between the Quakers and Brooklyn teams. If the Quakers can win two out of three from the Brooklyn team it will be a grand race for the pennant. In the last series Brooklyn meets New York while the Boston team is playing Philadelphia.

Alexander and His Band
In the race for the hunting the pitching may tell the tale, and Brooklyn and Philadelphia are well fortified. Alexander is the big star, of course, and Rixey is going well, while the Dodger hillock occupants, Marquard, Sherrod Smith, Cheney and Pfeffer, have been going good. Looking at it from every angle the Brooklyn team looks the best at present.

They have two good southpaws in Smith and Marquard to send at the Quakers, while Rucker and Mails may also be used. Then the right-handed crew, consisting of "Vaiser" Dell, Pfeffer, Cheney and Combs, looks good. Jake Daubert is back in the game and this means a big help to the club, while Merkle may be used in the outfield, on account of his hitting. Jimmy Johnston is going good, while Zack Wheat is dependable. Cutshaw, Olsen and Mowrey class up with Niehoff, Bancroft and Stock. And the Phils have only one southpaw to shoot against the Brooklyn contingent.

Dodgers Have Edge

Alexander will perhaps open the game today with the Brooklyn crew, as it is thought that Moran has saved him for an attack on the boys across the bridge. The Dodgers have won a big majority of their games from the Quakers and should have an edge on the present series. It will be a hard fought battle, and should Brooklyn capture three straight it looks like joy in the City on Long Island.

In many respects Moran's club is stronger than it was last year, and in others it is weaker. Alexander represents the difference between a fair ball club and a contender. Cravath isn't the star he was last year by any means. He is hitting around the 250 mark and Luderus also has fallen, hitting about the same figure. On the other hand Paskert is improving and Milton Stock is hitting around the 300 mark. Rixey is a great help to the club, but without him and his teammate Alexander, the Phils would be far down the list.

Luderus is the only left-handed batter on the team, and it means loss of time in getting down to first base. The players are naturally slow starters from the plate, and although one would expect that they would hammer southpaws, "Dutch" Leonard held them to something like three hits in a game last fall.

Nap Rucker's Chance

A few years ago the fans were wishing that the Brooklyn team could win a pennant in order to give Nap Rucker a chance to pitch in a world's series. Now they have a chance, but Rucker's name is seldom mentioned. The veteran has been forced to give the honors to Pfeffer, Smith and others.

Sentiment appears to favor the Brooklyn team, as they have not captured a pennant for ages, while the Phillies and Braves have been at the top in the last two years. Then again many are pulling for Wilbur Robinson to carry the team across the line ahead.

Greek Meets Greek

In the last series of the year the fans will watch with interest the attack. Brooklyn meets New York. The Giants may put the Dodgers down out of the race. A clean sweep would mean this, and McGraw would then be about as popular in Brooklyn as a bulldog is with a tramp. It will be a meeting of Muggsy and his pupil, and it may come to pass that Marquard, Meyers and Merkle, three former Giants, will have much to do with the result. This series should draw a record breaking crowd in Brooklyn.

They are on their way, and one ally may send either team to the top. It has been one of the greatest fights in the history of the National League, and the fans will rest easy when the winner is announced.

KANTLEHNER WILL PITCH FOR PHILLIES

PITTSBURG, Sept. 16.—The Pittsburgh National League Club late today released Pitcher Ervin G. Kantlehner to the Philadelphia National League Club by the waiver route for $1500. Kantlehner, who has been with Pittsburgh three years, will leave at once for Philadelphia, where he will play the rest of the season.
